Come to this greatest and most successful of all clearance events

We do not measure the success of this great January clearance sale merely by the throngs attending it, nor by our sales slips alone, although they are both large—but we believe we have achieved an even greater success by having established new value-giving records that far surpass any that this town has ever known. You must realize that we mean business, we can not afford to dilly-dally in clearing our stocks—not an article of winter goods must remain at the close of this sale. Hence it must be sold, even at give away prices. Big stocks from which to choose just what you want. Come and judge for yourselves as to the values we are giving. Thousands of dollars in savings for the patrons of this store.

COMPETITIVE EXAMS FOR NAVAL ACADEMY

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETED FOR TESTS IN THIS CITY ON JANUARY 30.

Will be Held in the High School—Superintendent Ladders Will Supervise—Form of Examinations Decided on as Fair Test Way—Six Subjects Will be Covered.

Competitive examinations to determine who shall be the principal and alternates for appointment to the U. S. naval academy at Annapolis will be held at the Pendleton high school beginning Friday, January 30 at 9 a. m. under the supervision of Supt. J. S. Landers, Representative N. J. Sinnott having made the necessary arrangements while here Sunday. The examinations will continue over two days if necessary.

Representative Sinnott decided to select his candidate for entrance to the naval academy in June, 1914, by means of a competitive examination as the fairest way. The competitor receiving the highest standing in this examination will be appointed by Mr. Sinnott as principal, and the three standing next in order will be named as first, second and third alternates, respectively. The four successful candidates at the competitive examination will be permitted to take either of the official Annapolis examinations given in Oregon the third Tuesday in February and the third Tuesday in April, 1914, the candidate may select either date preferred. In case the principal fails in the official examination, and the alternate succeeds he is appointed, etc., etc.

For the convenience of boys in the southern portion of Mr. Sinnott's district a separate examination will be held on the same day and hour, at which the same questions will be asked, in the Central School Building, Klamath Falls, Oregon. The latter examination will be under the direction of Supt. R. H. Dunbar of the Klamath Falls public schools. Any competitor may select the place more convenient to him; but if he wishes to take the examination he should immediately notify either Supt. Landers or Supt. Dunbar as the case may be, in order that suitable arrangements may be made for the same.

Any young man may enter the competitive examination who is now, and was on December 1st, 1913, an actual resident of the Second Congressional District of Oregon and is of the required age. In order to enter Annapolis in 1914 a candidate must be between the ages of sixteen and twenty years on the date of one or the other of the two official examinations, which will be held in Oregon on the third Tuesday in February or the third Tuesday in April, 1914. A candidate is eligible the day he becomes sixteen and ineligible the day he becomes twenty.

The competitive examination will be written in form and will embrace the following subjects: English Grammar, Geography, U. S. History, Arithmetic, Algebra, and Geometry. No separate examinations in spelling and punctuation but these subjects will be graded from the manuscripts turned in by competitors in the other subjects.

Fuller information as to the scope of the examinations in the different subjects can be obtained by writing to either Superintendent Landers at Pendleton or Superintendent Dunbar at Klamath Falls. Competitors should register at once upon deciding to take the examination.

Pig's Fate Is Warning.
SAYVILLE, L. I., Jan. 6.—Harry Huff, game protector, went through the woods a few days ago looking for deer poachers. He found none, but he came upon a dead pig that had been killed by several charges of buckshot.

He formed the theory that the pig had taken the shape of a deer in the eyes of an intoxicated poacher and, realizing that he was not safe under the circumstances, Huff promptly made tracks for the open fields.

CHILD DRINKS WHISKEY AND DIES SOON AFTER

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 6.—Frequently given small doses of whiskey by his parents to soothe him, according to Dr. Joseph Jacobs, Erwin Monger, 2, drank a half pint of the liquor while his parents were in another room and died an hour later in convulsions. After signing a certificate giving acute alcoholic poisoning as the cause of death Dr. Jacobs said: "The practice of giving whiskey to babies is very general, but is dangerous and abhorrent."

APARTMENTS ARE TOO SMALL TO DIE IN

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 6.—"Clevelanders have got to have more room to die in," said Councilman Bert Wagner as he framed an ordinance providing that doors of apartment houses be made larger.

Wagner is an undertaker when he is not in politics, so he knows whereof he speaks.

Wagner says doors in hundreds of apartment houses in the city are so small that coffins have to be stood on end to get them through.

SOCIETY

With Covered Hairpins.

A clever invention just placed on sale is a hairpin, three-quarters covered with woven silk, with the points heavily enameled. The covering is put on so smoothly you cannot tell where the silk leaves off and enamel begins.

The hairpins come in seven shades of brown, in black or white, in different sizes, and sell at 5 cents a dozen. They are scarcely visible when in the hair, the covering prevents rust and slipping out of the hair.

A Lace Novelty.

An odd idea in collar and cuff sets just out is to weave a Cupid's head in venise lace. The head is the central portion of the design, the regulation pattern extending to the edges of the collars and cuffs.

Dictates of Fashion.

The gold filled box purse is very much in vogue. Printed and plain cotton crepes are much liked.

Little silk vests are seen in the new chiffon blouses.

Narrow effects at the foot of the skirt are de rigueur.

Yoke effects are much in evidence in the suit coats.

A few of the new coats flare slightly below the hips.

Broadtail is to be immensely popular, combined with velvet.

Semidress suits have jackets reaching either to the waist or a few inches below it.

White and ecru laces are often combined on an afternoon gown with charming effect.

In some of the new gowns the salvage of the material is used in place of the stitched hem. The effect is altogether unusual.

Collars and cuffs of fur are the finish to many of the tailored suits of whatever material. Handmade silk cords and tassels often are used for holding the fronts in place.

Petticoats of lansdowne are more practical than models of cheap messaline which, in this day of narrow skirts is apt to give way at the seam or across the knee if one stoops suddenly for a fallen purse of handkerchief.

Lansdowne is a mixture of silk worsted which is very soft and supple in texture, has a delicate sheen and clings not too much for a comfortable petticoat.

Several waistcoats of gay color may be provided for the cutaway tailored coat by making mock waistcoats of wide ribbon in plain color, flowered or post impressionist design. These are simply strips of the ribbon crushed across the waistline under the coat fronts and attached to the inner edges of the coat by snap-buttons. One waistcoat may be whisked out in a jiffy and another substituted in this conventional way.

With the dancing frock of tulle, which has usually three fluffy tulle tunics above a narrow skirt, are worn laced corsetts, or slippers having ribbons laced across the instep and around the ankle; and long gloves of embroidered silk in white or dainty color. Women who do not fancy the rather exaggerated effects of the laced corset, wear dancing slippers of satin, buttoned across the instep in some fancy strap arrangement.

5 Perish in Fire.

NEWARK, Ohio, Jan. 6.—Five at least perished and one was fatally injured while five were less seriously hurt in a fire which destroyed the Kearns hotel, a cheap lodging house. Firemen were still searching the ruins for bodies of other possible victims.

YOUNG MAN KILLS SELF BY SHOOTING THROUGH HEART IN LONELY SPOT

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 7.—Dis-mayed, apparently, at fruitless efforts to secure employment, and faced with the possibility of having to entertain his sweetheart, Miss Marie Fenwick, of Hood River, without funds, Harold A. Lathrop, aged 21, a watchmaker and jeweler, traded his watch for a cheap gun, then selected an isolated spot on the east side and ended his life. The trading of the watch is concluded from the fact that the watch and not the chain nor other articles of jewelry are missing.

The shooting occurred at the northwest corner of East Second and East Salmon streets, in the center of a vacant tract of railroad property several blocks from any buildings. One shot was fired through the heart. The body was found by I. S. Mullen and G. E. Winzenried, employees of east side business houses, who were on their way to work.

LAW DOES NOT MEAN WHAT IT SAYS, OPINION

OREGON CITY, Jan. 7.—Believing that section 3682 of the laws relating to assessments and taxation of this state, passed in 1913, is worded so that it is ambiguous, County Treasurer J. A. Tufts submitted his opinion of the matter to Attorney General Crawford for legal advice.

The attorney general agreed with Treasurer Tufts and held that the law did not mean exactly what it said. His statement is as follows:

"Replying to your letter of December 31, inquiring as to whether, if one half of the tax on any person's estate is paid on or before April 1, they are required to pay a penalty on the last half, providing the last half is paid prior to September 1 of that year, I beg to state that such is not the intention of the statute, allowing one half of the tax to be carried over until September 1; the penalty would not begin on this half until after September 1."

Mrs. W. R. Ellis will be hostess for the members of the Current Literature Club at her home on Lewis street on Wednesday afternoon, January fourteenth. She will leave shortly afterwards for her country home at Cathlamet, Washington.

Mrs. Ben L. Burroughs and Mrs. Roy Alexander of Pendleton, Ore., are the house guests of Mrs. John Gates and Miss Gates at the latter's cottage at Seaview, Wash. They went down to pass the New Years with the Gates and will remain a fortnight in all. On their return, Mr. Burroughs will join his wife for a few weeks' visit here with Mrs. Nellie Williams at her home on Willamette boulevard. The Burroughs passed Christmas here with Mrs. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bohn, a prominent young couple of Hermiston, visited in Pendleton for a few hours yesterday while en route to Walla Walla.

Mrs. L. P. Elliott, wife of the superintendent of construction at Thorn Hollow, left for her home in Portland after being the guest here of Mrs. Charles M. Stype.

The North Side Bridge club was entertained yesterday at the home of Mrs. Laura Nash Settle. The prize was won by Mrs. Frank Frazier.

Mrs. Kenneth McRae will be hostess to the members of the Busy Bee Club at her home on Garfield street on next Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Westbrook Dickson left yesterday for Portland in response to a message stating that her mother is ill there.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Scharpf, well known young people of Pilot Rock, visited in Pendleton last evening.

Mrs. Leon Cohen will leave Sunday for Gearhart Park for a winter sojourn by the sea.

Miss Edith Johnson left yesterday for Portland for a visit of ten days.

Lame back may come from overwork, cold settled in the muscles of the back, or from disease. In the two former cases the right remedy is BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. It should be rubbed in thoroughly over the affected part, the relief will be prompt and satisfactory. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by all dealers.—Adv.

DENIAL MADE THAT CARDEN WILL BE REMOVED

LONDON, Jan. 6.—The British foreign office today denied the story that Sir Lionel Carden, minister to Mexico from England, is about to be transferred from the Mexican legation. The story was widely circulated in the United States.

"There is no truth whatever in the report," it was officially stated at the foreign office.

EIGHT HOUR DAY GOES FOR POLICEMEN, TOO

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 7.—Eugene policemen will hereafter work only eight, consecutive hours, according to the edict of State Labor Commissioner Hoff. He informed Mayor Yoran that he will have to arrange the police shifts so that none of the members of the force will be on longer than eight hours. This will mean the addition of several more men to the force. Commissioner Hoff says the new state law applies to policemen, as well as to other employees of a municipality in this state.

Consumption Takes 350 People Daily

In the United States and the deadly germs claim more victims in cities than in rural districts, due no doubt to the increased number of indoor workers in confining quarters and their lack of sunshine.

Tubercular germs always attack when the system is weakened from colds or sickness, overwork, overstrain, confining duties or any drain which has reduced the resistive forces of the body. But nature always provides a corrector and the best physicians emphasize that during changing climate our blood should be kept rich and pure and active by taking Scott's Emulsion after meals; the cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion warms the body by enriching the blood—it peculiarly strengthens the lungs and upbuilds the resistive forces of the body to avoid colds and prevent consumption.

If you work indoors, tire easily, feel languid or nervous, Scott's Emulsion is the most strengthening food-medicine known; it builds energy and strength and is totally free from alcohol or any stupefying drug—every druggist has it. 15-36 Scott & Borne, Bloomfield, N. J.

Drowns in Surface Water.
CHICO, Cal., Jan. 7.—John Wallin was drowned in the high water at Hamilton City, near here. While driving through some surface water his mules bolted, capsizing his wagon and burying him under a load of rubbish.

SAN FRANCISCO WILL AID UNEMPLOYED

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—The citizens' committee formed to plan relief for San Francisco's unemployed, met to consider ways and means, and immediately split instead on the question of wages.

The committee decided to raise $50,000 to meet the situation. Ex-Mayor James D. Phelan headed the list with a $500 subscription.

BRITISH SOLDIER HURT IN HOOD RIVER CRASH

HOOD RIVER, Ore., Jan. 7.—Two-regular in the English army, who is now at the local hospital. Fred Dunagan and three Greeks were also badly shaken up. Several cars were derailed and damaged.

"FAUST" UP TO DATE.

Some weeks ago a brilliant performance of "Faust" was given at the Grand theater at Montreal. Between the first and second acts the stage manager said:

"Ladies and gentlemen, by a happy innovation our distinguished manager has decided to replace the spinning wheel of Margaret, a noisy and obsolete instrument by a sewing machine of Messrs. X, the running of which is so smooth that you will not lose a single note of the delightful song of the King of Thule."

Margaret gravely took her seat before the sewing machine, on which the name of the maker was shown in luminous characters, and then, murmured enraptured:

"This sewing machine is incomparable; moreover, it costs only $60."—Intransigent.
